

Maximizing your leadership skills can positively impact your professional and personal life. Developing these skills is one of the surest ways to enhance many aspects of your life.

Answering these questions will help you become a stronger leader.

1. How would increasing my leadership skills affect my professional life?

2. Which qualities common to great leaders am I currently lacking?

3. Whom could I approach to mentor my leadership development? In lieu of a mentor, what is my strategy for enhancing my leadership skills?

4. What could I do today to increase my ability to lead others?

5. How would becoming a better leader enhance my life outside of work?

6. Which great leaders of the past do I find interesting? Which of those leaders is closest to my own style of leadership?

7. What is my greatest barrier to growing my leadership skills? How can I overcome it?
