

MENTOR

PETER BURNS

Peter Burns is a distinguished veteran, business professional and visionary leader whose career has spanned entrepreneurship, executive management, and leadership in the US Army. Throughout his career, Peter has founded and led multiple organizations and ventures across multiple industries and sectors. Beyond his personal accomplishments and professional achievements,

Peter is deeply committed to equipping and empowering youth for success. He is widely respected for his commitment to mentoring young entrepreneurs and contributing to our community. Peter Burns exemplifies the values of lifelong learning, business excellence, and the power of positive change. He is a true champion for young entrepreneurs and youth leadership

